

News of Mishawaka

Local Guard Company Breaks Record
When Indianapolis Orders Turnout

Scores of families in Mishawaka, whose sons and fathers are members of the local guard company, were thrown into a turre of excitement early last night, when emergency orders were received by the guards to turn out in heavy marching order and complete fighting equipment.

In exactly one hour and 45 minutes from the time the special order was delivered to Capt. Corwin B. Hartwick, commanding Company I, 152nd Infantry, by a special courier from the office of Adj. Gen. Harry B. Smith of Indianapolis, the entire guard company consisting of 94 men, were on the Union st. road marching toward Bremen, thus smashing all former records for guard mobilization in Indiana.

The order from state headquarters of the National Guard at Indianapolis was received by Capt. Hartwick at 2:45 p. m. He was eating lunch at Ross's restaurant.

He wasted no time. The order was explicit. It directed him to mobilize his company immediately in full fighting equipment and take the Union st. road to Bremen. The order further directed that additional instructions would be given by another courier who would intercept the troops on the road.

Capt. Hartwick's little black Stutz was parked outside.

TEMPLE

"Without Limit," the Metro release of an S-L Picture, featuring lovely Anna Q. Nilsson and a notable all-star cast, today showing at the Temple theater, has the distinction of being a George D. Baker production. This in itself speaks volumes to the thousands of picture-goers familiar with the enviable reputation enjoyed by Mr. Baker in the world of the cinema.

This picture, an adaptation from the powerful short story of Calvin Johnston which recently appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, where it created a strong impression, is the first to follow Mr. Baker's addition with S-L Pictures as the producing organization and Metro as distributors.

For years George D. Baker has been known as one of the "sure-fire" directors of motion pictures. His many years of stage experience as an actor and dramatic producer have shown in his screen work. His motion picture career dates from the early Vitaphone days, when he spent three years writing and directing his own picture. Part of his time was passed as director for the late John Bunny, the round comedian. Then followed three years with Metro, Mr.

He deserted his half-finished supper and made a flying leap for the Stutz. Within three minutes the little car was tearing its way through the city streets, breaking all speed records.

The five ward leaders were the first to be notified. They were Lieut. Harold Hull and A. C. Humboldt, Sergts. Merlin Berberich and Valdo Spake and Pvt. Harry Beamer.

They in turn notified their sections. Mystified and thrilled at the prospect of action, the guardsmen made record time. The call came just at dinner time.

"Where are we going?"

"What's up?"

A score of questions passed through the lines as the company marched along the street with swiftness and stride. It was easy to see that this was not a drill. No one seemed to know, but all were eager to go.

After marching for more than two miles toward Bremen, another courier from Indianapolis met the guardsmen and delivered a sealed message from Adj. Gen. Smith which directed the guard to return to Mishawaka and to return to the order issued by Adj. Gen. Smith for the purpose of testing the local organization's ability to mobilize. Similar orders were sent to other guard units throughout the state.

Baker directed a number of Metro's prominent stars in New York and eventually was promoted to the position of managing director of the company's west coast studios in Hollywood, making pictures with Bert Lytell, May Allison, Viola Dana, Edith Storey and other Metro stars.

CENTURY

Marie Prevost, former Mack Sennett bathing beauty, and famed alike for her beauty of face and of form, is a particular star at the Century theater today in a five reel comedy drama entitled, "Moonlight, Polka" and having to do with the adventure of a "baby vamp." A two-reel western drama is entitled, "One Law for All," features popular Hoot Gibson, as a star of the same good program. A Century comedy with the clever canine actor, Brownie, is entitled, "Brownie, the Peacemaker." A timely news reel with many interesting features is also on the bill.

Tomorrow the program at the Century is changed, with the feature being a heart romantic drama entitled "All Dressed Up" and starring vivacious Gladys Walton. A western thriller "Fighting Water," a wild animal comedy and a news reel are other features of tomorrow's bill.

SUNDAY PROGRAMS
AT LOCAL CHURCHESEvangelistic Campaign Opens at Evangelical Church—Rev.
A. G. Neall to Speak.

Communion services will be observed Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church. In addition to the usual musical program by Mrs. Margaret D. Copman, organist, and the Presbyterian quartet, Mrs. Jerneen and Mr. Shelby will sing "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling." In the evening Rev. Dr. J. A. Burnett will preach on "The Restraint of Power of the Consecrated Life." Mrs. Jerneen will sing a Welsh air, "Gently, Lord, O Gently Lead Us."

Services in the various other Protestant and Catholic churches will be as follows:

First Christian.
Bible school and adult classes at 9:45 a. m.; morning service at 10:45 o'clock; special music by chorus; sermon; communion services at 11 o'clock a. m.; Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.; evening services at 7:30 o'clock with a special address featured by illustrations; music by large chorus.

First Methodist Episcopal.
Rev. A. G. Neall, D. D., district superintendent, of Warsaw, will deliver the sermon at the morning services; the Marquette quartet will contribute a selection and Mrs. Jacob Weller will sing a solo entitled "Consider the Allies." The Marquette quartet will sing again at the evening services.

First Evangelical.
Rev. J. H. Evans, pastor; Sunday school begins at 9:45 a. m.; N. Q. O'Brien, superintendent; Evangelistic campaign will be in progress; opening sermon of the evangelistic campaign; juniors will meet at 2:30 p. m.; Young People's Alliance meeting at 6 o'clock, topic, "Utilizing Opportunities." Rev. S. H. Baumgartner will preach and conduct the communion services at 7 p. m. Evangelistic services will be held every night except Saturday.

First Baptist.
Bible school at 9:45, in charge of Charles Johnson; morning worship at 10:45 o'clock, subject, "Jehovah and the Jew." Junior B. Y. P. U. at 4:30 p. m.; Young People's meeting at 6 o'clock, popular song service at 7 o'clock, subject of sermon, "Jonah, a Type of Christ," special music by the chorus choir at both services.

Immanuel Baptist.
Bible school at 9:45 a. m.; morning worship at 11 o'clock, theme, "Lessons from Hebrews," B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 o'clock; evening services at 7:30 o'clock, theme, "No One Cares."

St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran.
Divine services in the German language at 10:30 a. m., theme, "Losing and Finding Christ." Bible class and Sunday school at 9:40 a. m. In that line at 7 o'clock a special service will be conducted in the English language in which the Rev. F. W. Raetz, Watertown, Wis., field secretary of the Lutheran Home for Feeble-Minded and Epileptics, will deliver a lecture on the work being done at that institution; the regular annual congregational meeting will be held at 2 o'clock; business meeting of the Bible class Monday at 7:30 p. m.; business meeting of the Senior Walthers League Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

First English Lutheran.
Rev. August H. Miller, pastor; Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; Charles Yeakey, superintendent; morning worship at 10:45 a. m.; vesper at 7:30 p. m.; the annual meeting of the congregation will be held on the 10th.

Mishawaka Classified

Lost and Found 10
BLACK LEATHER BILL FOLD with gold corners, containing 100 cards and receipts, lost. Reward, Return News Times.

Automobiles For Sale 11
FORDS—TO THE PARTY DESIRING A GOOD CHEAP USED FORD CAR CALL MISHAWAKA 2077, EVENINGS.

Auto Accessories 14
FOR SALE—Ford touring car body. Inquire at 112 Marquette after 5 p. m. 612

Auto Livery—Garages 16
FOR RENT—Five rooms, partly modern; garage; near Venable plant; rent reasonable. Colpaert Realty Corp., Lincoln way W. 711

Situations Wanted—Female 35
LADY WANTS house cleaning and washing to do. Satisfaction guaranteed. Phone Mish 1550 or inquire at 201 W. Ninth st. 35

Rooms Without Board 68
FOR RENT—Two furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Call Mishawaka 428. Phone Mishawaka 181

Wanted—To Rent 81
WANTED—By couple with two-year-old child, all modern 5 or 6 room house in Mishawaka or South Bend. Permanent tenant. Reasonable rent. R. E. Taylor, Kenold Music Stores, Mishawaka.

Houses For Sale 84
4-room part modern, and 1 acre, E 12th st. E. $2500.
5-room, part modern, new, S. Cleveland. $2500.
5-room, part modern, new, E. Jefferson av. $2500.
7 rooms, modern, Redlick st. $5000.
8 rooms, modern, S. Main st. $3500.
Any house listed may be bought on terms to suit your individual need. Phone Mishawaka 181
COLPAERT REALTY CORPORATION
126-8 Lincoln Way West.
Open Evenings.

GOOD HOMES built on easy terms. John Farwell, General Contractor, Reed Bldg., Mishawaka. Phone Mish. 238.
FOR SALE—New five rooms and bath, all modern. Price will surprise you. Inquire Stark Realty Co. 219

FOR SALE—Bungalow of five rooms on W. Jefferson st. Furnace, lights and gas. Price $3,300. Inquire at Stark Realty Co. 219

FOR SALE—Five rooms and bath; all modern; on paved street; good location. Price reasonable. Inquire at Stark Realty Co. 219

FOR SALE—Six rooms and bath, electric and gas. One corner lot on paved street. Inquire at Stark Realty Co. 219

FOR SALE—Six rooms, furnace and bath, electric, two blocks from Lincoln way. E. Price $2,500. Immediate possession. Inquire at Stark Realty Co. 219

READ THIS, MRS. LULA CASE?

If there's anyone in Mishawaka who knows Mrs. Lula Case, please tell her to communicate with Postmaster John A. Herzog at once. Postmaster Herzog received a telegram yesterday from Elmo Street, chief of police of Dallas, Texas, as follows: "Notify Mrs. Lula Case general delivery your city that her husband, E. B. Case was shot and killed here last night. Wire me if she can come at once." Postmaster Herzog says that Mrs. Case had her mail transferred to the South Bend postoffice a few days ago.

evening of Jan. 16, after which a pot luck supper will be served.

St. Andrew's Evangelical.
Sunday school at 9 a. m.; no services on account of the pastor's illness; annual business meeting of the congregation postponed until Sunday, Jan. 15.

St. Joseph's Catholic.
Rev. Dean L. A. Moench, pastor; Rev. Fr. John Baptist, assistant; first mass at 7:30; children's mass at 9 o'clock; high mass at 10:30 a. m.

St. Mary's Catholic.
Rev. Fr. A. Schokaert, pastor; first mass at 7:30 o'clock and high mass at 10 o'clock.

St. Monica's Catholic.
Rev. John Kohl, pastor; Rev. T. E. Dillon, assistant; first mass at 7 a. m.; children's mass at 9; high mass at 10:30 a. m.

LINCOLN

Elliott Dexter, for several years famous leading man in Cecil B. De Mille's production, was specially engaged by William D. Taylor to play the leading role of Jack Brookfield in "The Witching Hour," a new Paramount picture, which comes to the Lincoln Theater next Monday and Tuesday.

Jack Brookfield in "The Witching Hour" is a part made for order for the cultured, restrained art of Mr. Dexter. It is believed that this interpretation will stand as the greatest of all his screen and stage work. As the main strong will he has an unusual opportunity.

To support Mr. Dexter an exceptional cast has been chosen. Included are Mary Alden, Winter Hall, Ruth Renick, Robert Cain, Edward Sutherland, Fred Turner, Genevieve Blinn, Charles West, L. M. Wells, Clarence Geldart and Jim Blackwell.

NIGHT SCHOOL REOPENS.
The second semester of the night school, which opened Tuesday evening, January 10, at the high school building. Students who were enrolled the first semester will report to the same rooms. The new students will report to the study hall for enrollment.

Courses will be offered in the following subjects: Americanization, English, cooking, sewing, millinery, machine shop, mechanical drawing, shorthand and typewriting. The sessions will be on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7:15 to 9 o'clock. C. C. CAUBLE, High School Principal.

—Advt. 7 by 1.

KINDERGARTEN ASSN MEETS.
The Mishawaka Kindergarten Association met at the home of Miss Helen Service, 1035 Lincoln way E., Thursday evening. Miss Katherine Grimm had charge of the program and gave a talk on the "Kindergarten Cook Book."

MISHAWAKA COMMANDERY NO. 51.
K. T. Stated convocation Monday, Jan. 9th, at 7:30 p. m.
George C. White, Commander.
C. Burton Barnard, Rec.

REDS JANUARY SALE.
This year's January Clearance Sale presents for your approval the very best quality furniture back at PRE-WAR Prices. Full-sized beds, davenports in genuine leather, $65; beds of brass steel or iron reduced, floor lamps with silk shades, $11.50 and up. These and many other bargains in Bedroom and Dining Room suites await you. Convenient terms 5-11

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION BROKEN.
He had determined to go through another year with the old watch until he heard about the Schuett Plan. At this jewelry store on W. Jefferson Blvd., you can trade in your old watch and get credit on a new one. It's a mighty intelligent plan. Why don't you do it? 5-11

To really progress this year, place your money where it will earn the most. The Building & Loan Assn., 124 S. Main st., pays 6% interest, compounded quarterly. 10-11

All 5c cigars. 7 for 50c. Engel's 138-11

FOR SALE
Five rooms and bath, all modern, in River Park. Completely finished, hardwood floors, walls, built in built-in cupboards, coal cellar, good furnace. New and ready for occupation. $400.00 down balance $2. 2-

Seven rooms and bath, close in. This house is a very good value and in A-1 condition. An opportunity for rooming house. $4,400.00—$1,100.00 down.

One acre of land out Lincoln way E. 300 ft. south of Mishawaka. A tract of electric, good garage, chicken coop, small fruit, 15 feet on Lincoln way, close to school, store and church. Bus and in, in suburban every hour. Two miles to center of city. $3,000.00, cash or terms.

GROCERY
Doing a real business. Owner must sell on account of health. Fine up-to-date truck, delivery truck, long lease at a very cheap rental, doing from $800 to $1,200 weekly. Will lump or inventory. 10-17

HASTINGS REALTY CO.
111 So. Church St.
Phone Mish. 172 or 2333
Open Evenings

AMUSEMENTS

Secrets of the Movies Revealed

Q—What actor is called "the Nat Goodwin of the silent drama?" on account of his numerous wives?

A—Lew Cody, one of the favorite screen he-vamps. It is reported that he has had seven wives and is about to take another. Miss Elmer Fair who has played leads in several of his latest pictures is the other principal in this romance. Dorothy Dalton was one of the former wives.

Q—What are the addresses of the following players: Viola Dana, Tom Mix, Anita Stewart, Bill Hart, Raymond McKee and Betty Compton?

A—Write to Viola Dana—Metro, Hollywood, Calif.; Tom Mix—Fox Studio, 55th st. and 10th av., N. Y. C.; Anita Stewart—8 W. 48th st., N. Y. C.; Bill Hart—Lasky Studio, Hollywood, Calif.; Raymond McKee—Goldwyn-Culver City, Calif.; and Betty Compton—Lucky, Hollywood, Calif.

Q—What actor is making his first trip to New York?

A—Lon Chaney, one of the foremost character actors of the screen.

Screen

BLACKSTONE

Tom Moore, the well-known Goldwyn star, plays the role of "Fancy Charlie," the thief, in "Beating the Game," which has its first showings tonight. He enters the room of the senator for the purpose of robbing him. Discovered, he is treated courteously, much to his surprise, and given $5,000 to go to the senator's home town and lead an honest life. Under the impression that the senator is a "master" mind in the underworld, the thief actually tries the experiment and discovers that it is much easier to make a success as an honest man than as a crook.

Many obstacles are placed in the path of this scrupulously honest man, who, now that he has developed a passion for honest dealing, is more rigid in his principles than the townsmen. How he discovers the senator's experiment and wins the girl of his choice make a fitting climax to a powerful story which has been excellently acted.

One of the best comedies yet presented at the Blackstone theater, entitled "The Strap Hangers," starring Lee Moran, as well as International News, are to be seen on the same program.

Marguerite Clark, who opens a three-day engagement tomorrow in "Scrambled Wives," is in a class by herself. This irresistible little actress appeals to a class and all ages. She has magnetism, that force that so many actresses lack, that undefinable something that is born in one—and she can act.

A clever Tonerville comedy as well as latest News and Pathe Program will be seen on the same program.

"Sowing the Wind," in which Anita Stewart plays the leading role, is one of the greatest vehicles in which this popular star has yet appeared in, and is scheduled to open a four-day engagement Wednesday.

LASALLE

James Oliver Curwood, the most popular dramatic writer in America of stories of rapid-fire action and melodramatic thrills, never displayed his hair-raising, thrilling tales in a more efficient manner than he does in "God's Country and the Law," which in film form is being shown at the LaSalle today. The screen adaptation of the novel gives more realism and plausibility to the story than does the printed page, and a capable cast interprets the various roles. On Sunday the LaSalle will show Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien in the latest revival of their great triumph, this being "De Luxe Annie."

On Monday will come the De Mille Paramount production from the most important novel written in America in recent years, "Miss Lulu Bett." As a spoken drama this won the Pulitzer prize for being the best stage production of the year. In the silent form it brings a cast which includes Lois Wilson, Milton Sills, Theodore Roberts, Clarence Burton and Helen Ferguson.

CASTLE

Wallace Reid, a debonair daredevil who keeps 'em smiling even while ripping off his most ardent admirers, is being shown for the last time here in "The Hell Diggers," today at the Castle. The picture, a rip-snorting thriller, is pleasing the Reid fans even more than did his recent automobile stories by the same author. Lois Wilson, soon to be seen as Miss Lulu Bett, is the leading lady "Shadows of the West" is Sunday's billing.

Stage

"THE BAT"

Last performance of "The Bat" will be given in South Bend at the Oliver theater this afternoon and tonight.

This is the play, conceded by all to be the greatest success in years. This is the play about which there has been more discussion than any other play produced in a generation or more.

ORPHEUM

The Maxwell Quintet, five excellent male singers, offer the song sketch, "A Night at the Club," with three guests and two colored attendants as the characters, for the headline attraction at the Orpheum today and tomorrow. "The Doll Frolics" is a novelty number in which the McKinley sisters and other pretty girls participate. Characters from fairy tales and other children's books are introduced and execute song and dance bits charmingly.

The Gellis, a trio of French gymnasts, amuse and amaze with their feats of skill. The act is nicely arranged with the midst of the trio getting the laughs. Billy Frawley, a comedian of the type always

To really progress this year, place your money where it will earn the most. The Building & Loan Assn., 124 S. Main st., pays 6% interest, compounded quarterly. 10-11

Although Chaney is an old trooper of the stage and played all over the country he never happened to hit Manhattan.

Q—Which star is the latest to be on the list of actors separated from their wives?

A—Earle Williams. The actor, however, denies that a divorce is contemplated or that his wife, who was Florine Waltz, has any grounds for one.

Q—What motion picture actors and actresses have come into special prominence during the last year?

A—May McAvoy; Betty Compton, Betty Blythe, Alice Calhoun, Marjorie Daw, Florence Vidor, Virginia Brown Faire, Colleen Moore, Marguerite de la Motte, Richard Barthelmess, Rudolph Valentino, Gareth Hughes, Richard Dix, Conrad Dix, and William Boyd.

How are 200 barrels of soap going to be used in a picture? See if you guess correctly. The answer will appear tomorrow.

(Copyright, 1922.)

FISKE O'HARA.

Fiske O'Hara and his ingratiating smile will soon be with us again. His annual appearance at the Oliver theater being scheduled for Monday evening next week. The popular actor-singer appears in a popular and his partner, dainty Edna Louise, a ravishing beauty, have a skit made up of clean and clever patter, bright comedy bits and song.

Tom Moore, the well-known Goldwyn star, plays the role of "Fancy Charlie," the thief, in "Beating the Game," which has its first showings tonight. He enters the room of the senator for the purpose of robbing him. Discovered, he is treated courteously, much to his surprise, and given $5,000 to go to the senator's home town and lead an honest life. Under the impression that the senator is a "master" mind in the underworld, the thief actually tries the experiment and discovers that it is much easier to make a success as an honest man than as a crook.

Many obstacles are placed in the path of this scrupulously honest man, who, now that he has developed a passion for honest dealing, is more rigid in his principles than the townsmen. How he discovers the senator's experiment and wins the girl of his choice make a fitting climax to a powerful story which has been excellently acted.

One of the best comedies yet presented at the Blackstone theater, entitled "The Strap Hangers," starring Lee Moran, as well as International News, are to be seen on the same program.

Marguerite Clark, who opens a three-day engagement tomorrow in "Scrambled Wives," is in a class by herself. This irresistible little actress appeals to a class and all ages. She has magnetism, that force that so many actresses lack, that undefinable something that is born in one—and she can act.

A clever Tonerville comedy as well as latest News and Pathe Program will be seen on the same program.

"Sowing the Wind," in which Anita Stewart plays the leading role, is one of the greatest vehicles in which this popular star has yet appeared in, and is scheduled to open a four-day engagement Wednesday.

James Oliver Curwood, the most popular dramatic writer in America of stories of rapid-fire action and melodramatic thrills, never displayed his hair-raising, thrilling tales in a more efficient manner than he does in "God's Country and the Law," which in film form is being shown at the LaSalle today. The screen adaptation of the novel gives more realism and plausibility to the story than does the printed page, and a capable cast interprets the various roles. On Sunday the LaSalle will show Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien in the latest revival of their great triumph, this being "De Luxe Annie."

On Monday will come the De Mille Paramount production from the most important novel written in America in recent years, "Miss Lulu Bett." As a spoken drama this won the Pulitzer prize for being the best stage production of the year. In the silent form it brings a cast which includes Lois Wilson, Milton Sills, Theodore Roberts, Clarence Burton and Helen Ferguson.

Wallace Reid, a debonair daredevil who keeps 'em smiling even while ripping off his most ardent admirers, is being shown for the last time here in "The Hell Diggers," today at the Castle. The picture, a rip-snorting thriller, is pleasing the Reid fans even more than did his recent automobile stories by the same author. Lois Wilson, soon to be seen as Miss Lulu Bett, is the leading lady "Shadows of the West" is Sunday's billing.

Last performance of "The Bat" will be given in South Bend at the Oliver theater this afternoon and tonight.

This is the play, conceded by all to be the greatest success in years. This is the play about which there has been more discussion than any other play produced in a generation or more.

The Maxwell Quintet, five excellent male singers, offer the song sketch, "A Night at the Club," with three guests and two colored attendants as the characters, for the headline attraction at the Orpheum today and tomorrow. "The Doll Frolics" is a novelty number in which the McKinley sisters and other pretty girls participate. Characters from fairy tales and other children's books are introduced and execute song and dance bits charmingly.

The Gellis, a trio of French gymnasts, amuse and amaze with their feats of skill. The act is nicely arranged with the midst of the trio getting the laughs. Billy Frawley, a comedian of the type always

To really progress this year, place your money where it will earn the most. The Building & Loan Assn., 124 S. Main st., pays 6% interest, compounded quarterly. 10-11

James Oliver Curwood, the most popular dramatic writer in America of stories of rapid-fire action and melodramatic thrills, never displayed his hair-raising, thrilling tales in a more efficient manner than he does in "God's Country and the Law," which in film form is being shown at the LaSalle today. The screen adaptation of the novel gives more realism and plausibility to the story than does the printed page, and a capable cast interprets the various roles. On Sunday the LaSalle will show Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien in the latest revival of their great triumph, this being "De Luxe Annie."

On Monday will come the De Mille Paramount production from the most important novel written in America in recent years, "Miss Lulu Bett." As a spoken drama this won the Pulitzer prize for being the best stage production of the year. In the silent form it brings a cast which includes Lois Wilson, Milton Sills, Theodore Roberts, Clarence Burton and Helen Ferguson.

Wallace Reid, a debonair daredevil who keeps 'em smiling even while ripping off his most ardent admirers, is being shown for the last time here in "The Hell Diggers," today at the Castle. The picture, a rip-snorting thriller, is pleasing the Reid fans even more than did his recent automobile stories by the same author. Lois Wilson, soon to be seen as Miss Lulu Bett, is the leading lady "Shadows of the West" is Sunday's billing.

Last performance of "The Bat" will be given in South Bend at the Oliver theater this afternoon and tonight.

This is the play, conceded by all to be the greatest success in years. This is the play about which there has been more discussion than any other play produced in a generation or more.

The Maxwell Quintet, five excellent male singers, offer the song sketch, "A Night at the Club," with three guests and two colored attendants as the characters, for the headline attraction at the Orpheum today and tomorrow. "The Doll Frolics" is a novelty number in which the McKinley sisters and other pretty girls participate. Characters from fairy tales and other children's books are introduced and execute song and dance bits charmingly.

The Gellis, a trio of French gymnasts, amuse and amaze with their feats of skill. The act is nicely arranged with the midst of the trio getting the laughs. Billy Frawley, a comedian of the type always

To really progress this year, place your money where it will earn the most. The Building & Loan Assn., 124 S. Main st., pays 6% interest, compounded quarterly. 10-11

James Oliver Curwood, the most popular dramatic writer in America of stories of rapid-fire action and melodramatic thrills, never displayed his hair-raising, thrilling tales in a more efficient manner than he does in "God's Country and the Law," which in film form is being shown at the LaSalle today. The screen adaptation of the novel gives more realism and plausibility to the story than does the printed page, and a capable cast interprets the various roles. On Sunday the LaSalle will show Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien in the latest revival of their great triumph, this being "De Luxe Annie."

On Monday will come the De Mille Paramount production from the most important novel written in America in recent years, "Miss Lulu Bett." As a spoken drama this won the Pulitzer prize for being the best stage production of the year. In the silent form it brings a cast which includes Lois Wilson, Milton Sills, Theodore Roberts, Clarence Burton and Helen Ferguson.

Wallace Reid, a debonair daredevil who keeps 'em smiling even while ripping off his most ardent admirers, is being shown for the last time here in "The Hell Diggers," today at the Castle. The picture, a rip-snorting thriller, is pleasing the Reid fans even more than did his recent automobile stories by the same author. Lois Wilson, soon to be seen as Miss Lulu Bett, is the leading lady "Shadows of the West" is Sunday's billing.

Last performance of "The Bat" will be given in South Bend at the Oliver theater this afternoon and tonight.

This is the play, conceded by all to be the greatest success in years. This is the play about which there has been more discussion than any other play produced in a generation or more.

The Maxwell Quintet, five excellent male singers, offer the song sketch, "A Night at the Club," with three guests and two colored attendants as the characters, for the headline attraction at the Orpheum today and tomorrow. "The Doll Frolics" is a novelty number in which the McKinley sisters and other pretty girls participate. Characters from fairy tales and other children's books are introduced and execute song and dance bits charmingly.

The Gellis, a trio of French gymnasts, amuse and amaze with their feats of skill. The act is nicely arranged with the midst of the trio getting the laughs. Billy Frawley, a comedian of the type always

Although Chaney is an old trooper of the stage and played all over the country he never happened to hit Manhattan.

Q—Which star is the latest to be on the list of actors separated from their wives?

A—Earle Williams. The actor, however, denies that a divorce is contemplated or that his wife, who was Florine Waltz, has any grounds for one.

Q—What are the addresses of the following players: Viola Dana, Tom Mix, Anita Stewart, Bill Hart, Raymond McKee and Betty Compton?

A—Write to Viola Dana—Metro, Hollywood, Calif.; Tom Mix—Fox Studio, 55th st. and 10th av., N. Y. C.; Anita Stewart—8 W. 48th st., N. Y. C.; Bill Hart—Lasky Studio, Hollywood, Calif.; Raymond McKee—Goldwyn-Culver City, Calif.; and Betty Compton—Lucky, Hollywood, Calif.

Q—What actor is making his first trip to New York?

A—Lon Chaney, one of the foremost character actors of the screen.

FISKE O'HARA.

Fiske O'Hara and his ingratiating smile will soon be with us again. His annual appearance at the Oliver theater being scheduled for Monday evening next week. The popular actor-singer appears in a popular and his partner, dainty Edna Louise, a ravishing beauty, have a skit made up of clean and clever patter, bright comedy bits and song.

Tom Moore, the well-known Goldwyn star, plays the role of "Fancy Charlie," the thief, in "Beating the Game," which has its first showings tonight. He enters the room of the senator for the purpose of robbing him. Discovered, he is treated courteously, much to his surprise, and given $5,000 to go to the senator's home town and lead an honest life. Under the impression that the senator is a "master" mind in the underworld, the thief actually tries the experiment and discovers that it is much easier to make a success as an honest man than as a crook.

Many obstacles are placed in the path of this scrupulously honest man, who, now that he has developed a passion for honest dealing, is more rigid in his principles than the townsmen. How he discovers the senator's experiment and wins the girl of his choice make a fitting climax to a powerful story which has been excellently acted.

One of the best comedies yet presented at the Blackstone theater, entitled "The Strap Hangers," starring Lee Moran, as well as International News, are to be seen on the same program.

Marguerite Clark, who opens a three-day engagement tomorrow in "Scrambled Wives," is in a class by herself. This irresistible little actress appeals to a class and all ages. She has magnetism, that force that so many actresses lack, that undefinable something that is born in one—and she can act.